He always wishes that it was
The kind that it is not.

THE LEDGER delights in obliging its friends. It prints "Help Wanted," "Situations Wanted," "Lost" and "Found" notices free of charge; and as it costs you nothing for such service, don't you think it is as little as you can do to write the copy and either bring or send it to the office?

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

'T WAS MUCH ALIVE

Head of a Turtle Gives Evidence of Vigorous Life

The next time handsome Neddy Schwartz monkeys with the decapitated head of a turtle he will be dead sure it has been severed from the body at least twenty-four hours.

Last evening he dropped in at Bland & Wells's saloon and Bon, the colored chef of the establishment, had just completed dissecting a gallinaceous bird preparatory to converting the minute parts into toothsome soup.

The head was lying apart and Ed, picking it up, innocently put his finger into its mouth and when he did so it came together with a vise-like clamp that caused him to hop about three feet into the air and howl like a wounded Indian.

It took the combined efforts of the employees of the house to release the finger from the mouth of the turtle.

During the imprisonment of the member they say Ed actually sweat drops of blood.

If you think this is a fairy tale ask Ed about it and examine his finger.

Rev. J. L. Sturgill of the East End will leave Monday for Vermillion, Ill., on a visit to his sister. While there he will assist in a protracted meeting. He will be gone about two weeks.

LOOKED LIKE MURDER

Two Colored Citizens Engage in a Firstclass Scrimmage

Edgar Dimmitt and George Middleton, colored, had a fight yesterday morning in the alley adjoining Murphy's jewelry store, in which a revolver and a draypin were used as weapons.

Dimmitt was belaboring his enemy over the head with the heavy stick, while Middleton had his 32 pressed against Dimmitt's stomach, but was unable to pull the trigger, from the fact that the latter had a death grip on his pistol arm.

It looked for a time as though the Coroner would have a case, but the two combatants were separated without serious injury to either.

Each fellow has his own story and the merits of the fracas will be sifted out in Judge Whitaker's Court at 10 o'clock this morning.

BRIGHTMAN VICTORIOUS

Quick and Ludicrous Ending of An Attempted Shakedown

As predicted by THE LEDGER, in the showdown in Squire Drosel's Court yesterday afternoon in the case of the Commonwealth v. Brightman, the latter held four aces, and with a pair of jacks up his sleeve to use in case of an emergency, he won the pot with the greatest of ease.

But, seriously, it smacked more of a shakedown than otherwise. Mr. Brightman had no trouble whatever in establishing his innocence—in fact here in the city where he is best known as a man of integrity, no one gave the charge against him credence for a minute.

The first warrant, which was for stealing corn, was dismissed, and in its stead one issued for "taking" vegetables, to-wit—corn. Why the change the Commonwealth is left to answer.

Mr. Brightman was represented by Messrs. Cochran & Worthington and the Commonwealth by the County Attorney.

The jury was composed of our best and most intelligent citizens and it did not take three minutes to return a verdict of acquittal.

Such men as Charles D. Pearce, Colonel R. B. Lovel, James N. Kirk and others equally prominent, appeared in behalf of Mr. Brightman.

SOME OF ITS DEBTS

The Assets and Liabilities of the Garnett Marble Company

Mr. Clark Wilburn Garnett, doing business as The Garnett Marble Company, as stated in yesterday's LEDGER, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy Thursday through his attorneys, Sallee & Slattery.

AN EDUCATIONAL POWER.

The unlimited educational value of moving pictures has been nowhere demonstrated so forcibly as in Lyman H. Howe's new program which will appear at the Opera-house this afternoon and tonight. There is little in the length and breadth of this great world that escapes Mr. Howe's unremitting researches. He has compassed heights and depths of difficulties hardly realized by other exhibitors. So much that is extraordinary has been written of the notable proficiency and distinction of this masterful exhibition that it is universally regarded with singular interest. Seats on sale at Ray's.

The friends of Miss Nancye Bland will regret to learn of her illness at her home in West Second street.

MILDRED HOLLAND.

"The Triumph of an Empress," Mildred Holland's latest and greatest success, will be presented at The Washington on Thursday, October 19th, in which she appears as Catherine the Great of Russia. The Boston Globe paid the following tribute to Miss Holland's Catherine:

"The Triumph of an Empress," produced for the first time in Boston last evening at the Majestic Theater, with Mildred Holland as Empress Catherine, was received with an amount of enthusiastic applause that can be interpreted solely as the warmest kind of commendation for play, star and company.

The country suffered an irreparable loss by the demise of that good Indiana woman who fell dead while cooking.

What a hungry set New York insurance thieves must be! Last year it cost the Mutual Life $250 a day for lunches for its clerks. The money belonged to the policy holders.

A few days ago Kentucky's Attorney General braced up in front of the Supreme Court of the United States at Washington to move the advancement of the Caleb Powers case. Mr. Hays was "surprised" when the Court asked for the printed record in the case. It looks as though Kentucky's Attorney General is a little shy on Uncle Sam's way of doing things; but he promised to have the printed document before the Court in a week or two.

With commerce humming at a record rate, cars for traffic are so scarce that a costly shortage in them is feared by the railroads. In an effort to forestall such trouble, nearly every railway is placing heavy orders for equipment with quick delivery clauses. The commodity which feels the car shortage most at present in Chicago is grain. It is stated that the railroads centering there and extending East could use between 2,000 and 3,000 grain cars in excess of the present supply. One road alone admitted to being short nearly 1,000 cars. It was said that between 8,000,000 and 9,000,000 bushels of grain in that city cannot be moved, and that the elevator capacity soon will be overtaxed.

LORD MAYOR DUNNE of She-ca-go doesn't appear to be making much headway with his municipal ownership scheme. His "contract plan" was rejected by the City Council.

"We want capital, and to get it we must have liberal laws," was the gem of Hon. ALBERT S. BERRY's address at the opening of Kentucky's Development Convention at Louisville. And he might have added that the way to get liberal laws is to elect business men rather than politicians to the Legislature.

BECAUSE the National Cash Register Company at Dayton, O., proposes to manage its own business, about 4,000 of its Union employees will go on a strike. This is the model workshop of the world; and here are a few of the things it has provided for its workmen, free of cost on the part of the latter—

- Sunny, airy, clean buildings.
- Vine-clad walls and lawns bordered by flowers and shrubbery.
- Free baths on Company time.
- Free treatment for eyes injured by flying pieces of metal.
- Free consultation by the factory physician.
- Excellent lunches served by the Company at less than cost.
- Physical exercise department with competent instructor.
- Athletic field with ball diamond and quarter-mile cinder track.
- Free public play ground for children of factory neighborhood.
- Liberal money reward for all suggestions from employees used in improvement of Company's business.
- Women employees go to work hour later than men and leave ten minutes earlier.
- Half holiday on Saturday the year round.
- Rest rooms for women and service of trained nurses.
- Gardens for boys of factory neighborhood.
- Social settlement work, including classes in cooking, sewing, clay modeling, domestic economy, dancing, basketry, etc.
- A factory library at which books may be obtained for one cent per week.
- Travel—Three thousand employees were taken to the St. Louis Exposition in 1904. Seventeen hundred employees and families enjoyed ten days' outing on shores of Lake Huron in 1905. Scores of employees sent on educational trips to other plants annually.
- Where the "Bosses" have made the mistake in this case is in not going to work for the journeymen.

POMPEIAN MASSAGE CREAM

CLEANSES WHERE SOAP AND WATER FAIL.

Washing with soap and water makes the face look clean, but it cleans the surface only. It does not clean out the impurities in the skin that make it muddy and sallow. Pompeian Massage Cream goes through the surface. It sinks into every pore, reaches and loosens all foreign dirt and impurities that lodge in the pores. It is the only facial cream free from grease and that keeps the face free from it. Does not, cannot, promote the growth of hair on the face.

The present stage of the river is the lowest the rivermen have had for a year or more. The water is getting so low that it may be necessary to lay up some of the larger boats unless a rise comes very soon. This condition is not likely for six weeks, at least, when the Thanksgiving rises generally come.

On account of the fog the schedule of the boats of the Cincinnati, Pomeroy and Charleston Packet Company has been changed again. The schedule will be as follows until further notice: Monday, Tacoma, Pomeroy; Tuesday, Greenland, Pomeroy; Wednesday, Greenwood, Pomeroy; Thursday, Tacoma, Charleston; Friday, Greenland, Pomeroy; Saturday, Greenwood, Charleston. The commanders of the different boats do not take any chances in heavy weather and tie up at the bank when there is the least possibility of any danger.

Does It Pay?

Should Commercialism or Humanity Mark Conduct of the Employer to the Employed?

CINCINNATI TIMES-STAR.

The industrial world is watching with more than passing interest the outcome of the differences between labor and capital in the struggle between the National Cash Register Company of Dayton, O., and the thousands of Union workmen employed by the giant plant known as the world's model factory. The skeptical have long doubted the wisdom of "welfare work" as applied at this model institution, yet the men who believed in it prospered largely. It was intended, incidentally, to create a kindly feeling between the employer and the employed, but it has failed, and now a giant strike threatens to follow the edict of the "closed shop" handed down by President John H. Patterson of the Company.

Sweet-scented flowers in the factory yards and windows seem not to have sweetened the relation between the men and the purchaser of their labor. Lectures, fetes, trips and vacations seem not to have combined to take the place of the independence for which the laborer strives, and thousands upon thousands of dollars lavishly spent to make the environment of the workingman sanitary and delightful appear to have fallen far short of the mark of the high prize.

The concern has almost an exclusive monopoly on its business, and it is known that stock of the finished product is so abundantly on hand that the plant may be closed for a year without serious interruption to the sale of the company's wares. The crisis is now in abeyance while labor leaders and the company's representatives try to get together amicably and avert a strike. Truly the situation is paradoxical and a strange commentary on the great question of labor, its desires and tendencies.

FOR THE HEATHEN
How a Maysville Enthusiast Secured Funds to Help

What would become of the poor heathen and Foreign Missionary Fund were it not for the ever-faithful and good women of the congregation. They are ever scheming and planning how best they can do something whereby they can add their mite in replenishing the coffers of the Church.

After printing a hundred or more she turned them over to her husband with instructions to sell and return the proceeds to her. She is off on a visit now and on her return the poor man will have quite a little sum to turn over, which of course will go to the missionary fund.
